

Clyburn Family News

Folks, Angela and I just watched the movie "Pearl Harbor." In the spirit of that please note the following:

B-25 Fae took a ride on in October 1945.

"October 1945 found me waiting for orders to go home. I had to go to Camp Beale in California to get discharged. While waiting I had a chance for a free ride to San Francisco on a B-25 Bomber. That was a real exciting trip!"

August 1943 - Yreka Journal

Private Nancy McBain of Hornbrook is a member of a Women's Army Corps Unit which left First WAC Training Center of Fort Des Moines, recently for duty with the army at Tampa, Florida.

WAC units now are at work with the army in approximately 100 army posts throughout the United States and overseas in Africa and England. More than 60,000 WAC's are at work and in training.

The expanded program of the WAC is resulting in the replacement of trained manpower by trained woman power in non-combatant army jobs. Hundreds of trained WAC's go out weekly from Fort Des Moines and from the other four WAC training centers and several specialist schools to take their places with the army.

September 21, 1943 - Yreka Journal

To the Editor:

I have just read the first Yreka Journal I have seen since I left the good old United States.

I have been stationed one place and another here in the Aleutian's now for over five months. And I can tell you a home paper is really appreciated up here.

I was stationed at Dutch Harbor for about half the time I have spent up here. Now our outfit is together here on Island X of the Aleutian's and doing a very good job if I do say so myself.

Our battalion isn't a construction outfit, but our own and the ones that are have certainly done a wonderful job. So lets have a little praise or a good word for us.

McBain, C.M. 3/c USNR, is still in the North Pacific, and her two brothers, Woodrow Clyburn, F

2/c and Thomas M. Clyburn, F 1/c, are stationed in the South Pacific and at Gulfport, Mississippi respectively.

Cliburne, The Story Of An American Pioneer Family

Angela's new book is out. It is the story of our family. This book tracks the family and many branches of the Clyburn / Cliburn / Claburn / Cliborn / etc back to the mid 1500's in England. It is full of rich family history. This book has photo's and migration maps and is around 700, 8 1/2" x 11" pages long. It is not just a genealogical index, this is a real family history book. This book was compiled over a period of going on 18 years and was quite expensive to create. This book would be a prized possession for any of our family to own. It is for sale at $60 + $5 P&H. Only sold via the Internet. Contact Angela a carolinacliburn@hotmail.com.

Other Family News

My Aunt Imogene Ruth (Rosenbaum) (Turturici) (Knight) Walker passed away February 17th, 2002. She is buried in Montague, CA. My Uncle Earl Guyles Knight passed away also March 7th, 2002. He had been in a wheelchair for over 11 years after having a stroke. My sisters husband, Bill Thompson also passed away on April 4th, 2002. Lynda is broken up over his death but attempting to cope with it. Loucille Clyburn, my Aunt, had a mild heart attack recently but after surgery is recovering nicely.

Aimee and James' wedding was a very successful affair! Well, anyway they got married, which is the object isn't it. But what I'm trying to say is that they seem like a perfect couple. Aimee is a very nice girl and James seems quiet and very likable and seems to adore Aimee. All the ingredients of a happy marriage. It was a costume wedding and very fun. After the wedding everybody got to eat a good dinner. I finally got to meet some of Narcie's deceased husband, Dwayne's family. James has brothers and a sister that were there. They both had a lot of friends there and a good time was had by all. Congratulations Aimee and James. They plan to spend some time in Hawaii for a honeymoon.

I just received news that Gladys Genevieve Clyburn (Dave Clyburn's daughter) has recently married. She married a fellow by the name of Bob LeGault. Nice looking couple from the photo that I received. Congratulations Gee Ge!

Well folks, this is the end of the line for now. I hope that you have enjoyed this issue of The Clyburn Family News. I would appreciate any family stories you'd care to submit to this newsletter regarding your part of our family. Only stories of good taste of course. Funny episodes too! Photo's, etc. Sincerely,
